Dear Mr. van Mierlo,

We are extremely grateful for your donation of masks to us. These masks will be useful for our staff and will complement the local efforts we have undertaken here. As you may be aware, our department is at the forefront of the care of these patients - both in the intensive care units, the operating rooms and procedure areas. We have shared the masks with the hospital and anticipate that it will be used by hundreds of staff.

We are also sharing a few pictures of you handing over the gift with you and intend to publish these in our weekly newsletter that gets pushed out to a very large audience. I do understand this is not what drives your gift, but this is a small gesture of our gratitude.

Best wishes and thank you once again for your kindness.
